PAUL CHRISTOPHER FLYNN

'Themes'

Irish artist Paul Christopher Flynn is exhibiting from February 1st to July 30th, 2023, as part of The Montenotte's Artist in Residence program in association with The Gallery Kinsale.

ABOUT THE PAINTINGS AND ARTIST

Having graduated from the national college of art and design in Dublin in the early 1980's Paul walked away from art completely. For twenty years he lived in the United States, working mostly in Asia and for all that time not once did he pick up a paintbrush or a pencil, but he never stopped thinking about art and making pictures.

When he returned to Ireland in 2003, he began painting immediately, with twenty years' worth of images jostling for space in his mind. To paint or present them in any kind of linear fashion was impossible so he made the conscious decision to work on all the various themes and ideas as they demanded.

Themes, the title given of this retrospective exhibition is a snapshot of a selection of those twenty years of varied styles and images.

At their root, all the paintings have one aim - to be centres of calm in a world that is often just too loud. Paul wants his paintings to listen rather than speak, to invoke their subjects rather than describe them. The rest is up to the viewer.
